The major themes of Genesis that are repeated in the Book of Exodus:

- God's continuing plan for man's salvation through the preservation of the faithful remnant and the "promised seed."
- God's divine election of chosen men/women to fulfill His plan.
- God's preference for the younger over the elder in the election of His chosen.
- God's gift of salvation in the midst of judgment and chaos.
- God's desire to bring about the good, even out of man's evil intentions.

TIME LINE

Handout Lesson #8: The Ten Egyptian Plagues

Think of the wonders I have given you power to perform, once you are back in Egypt! You are to perform them before Pharaoh... Exodus 4:21

#1 The water of Nile turns to blood	Exodus 7:14-25	[7 day period]; throughout all Egypt
#2 plague of frogs from the Nile	Exodus 7:26-8:10	throughout all of Egypt
#3 plague of mosquitoes	Exodus 8:12-15	throughout all of Egypt
#4 ? Hebrew is 'arov = mixture; a noun based on the root "to mix"	Exodus 8:16-20	only Egypt not in Goshen
#5 plague of disease on livestock	Exodus 9:1-7	only Egypt not in Goshen
#6 plague of boils	Exodus 9:8-12	throughout all of Egypt

Notice how the plagues are grouped in twos: water of the River turns to blood and frogs from the River; mosquitoes are pests and “a mixture” of insects (?) (Scripture passage is unclear what on kind of “mixture”); sickness in livestock and sickness in boils on humans; hail from the sky and locusts from the sky; darkness and the ultimate darkness of death.

See the chart comparing the 10 Egyptian plagues to the judgments of Revelation: “The Chalice and Trumpet Judgments vs. the Plagues of Egypt”
